

We have been very pleased with the result of Indiana's Telephone Privacy Law. Please do not allow anything that would disrupt family/quiet time at home. These businesses/vendors can send information to residents, giving people the option to review their advertising as or when they see fit.